As soon as the ship is cleared by local authorities, an announcement is made that guests may proceed ashore.

Road Town, British Virgin Islands

Welcome to the capital city of the British Virgin Islands... its Main Street lined with colonial-era buildings painted in shades of pastel with colorful shutters and delicate wood trim. Trek through the rain-forested Mount Sage National Park for sweeping views, or play on spectacular white sand beaches with names like Smuggler's Cove and Cane Garden Bay (immortalized in Jimmy Buffet's "Mañana").

World Affairs Lecturer Melinda Bates

Melinda Bates is the first person in history to be a Special Assistant to the President and Director, White House Visitors Office for all eight years of any administration. From her elegant East Wing office she organized events both large (the annual Easter Egg Roll) and small (Presidential birthday parties.) Her day might begin with breakfast with Tom Hanks, a State Visit, lunch with Michael Douglas, tea with the Queen of Sweden or Dr. Ruth, and dinner seated next to the President of the United States. She welcomed many thousands of visitors to the White House, including all the most interesting celebrities, royals, politicians. In the morning the beautiful former Queen of Greece and in the afternoon the Grateful Dead. On the same day. No problem! Thanks to her historic years there Melinda is a leading authority on White House social history and the author of a popular memoir, White House Story.

She has appeared on the Today Show, multiple CNN programs, C-Span, multiple Fox programs, ABC and CBS. She has been a featured speaker on cruise ships for over 11 years. Guests frequently call her, "the best speaker we ever heard!" and thank her for "making our cruise!" She does not discuss politics unless requested, but only our common history we all can share.
